

DAS HAUS: A space of creation open to residents

10:00 – 13:00
Is there a life beyond the walls? Establishing DAS HAUS out of the city centre, linking it to the neighbourhood of Champfleury – where it should be located in 2016 - and the residents.

Walking-meeting, initiated by Jan Körbes, artist, architect in recycling and activist.

*A promenade through the Cité Louis Gros, the oldest inner-social housing project in Avignon outside of the city walls. With this walk we will define our social inclusion work with the neighbourhood's residents and active organisations in the area for the 2016 session.
(Meeting at Tri Postale)*

14:30 – 17:30
Public Discussion

DAS HAUS Avignon 2016 begins today, in July 2015.

First preparatory meeting on inclusion work and participatory projects planned for 2016.

Monday, 13th July

DAS HAUS : Artistic manifesto

10:00 – 13:00
Heritage, aura and future of Berlin's independent scene: how to face the current economical, political and social changes? What help would a Home in Avignon be?

The idea of DAS HAUS is to transform cultural exchange within an artistic project itself in order to install a mediation between the independent scene and the market. IN addition to productions meant to be presented to professional curators and audiences DAS HAUS also offers <<concepts>> such participatory and inclusion works

14:30 – 17:30
Public discussion
Official presentation and communication of the artistic project DAS HAUS.
